THE CROSS.

Quaint though the construction be of the following poem, yet never has the story of the Cross been told with more truthful simplicity:

Blest they who seek

While in their youth,
With spirit meek,
The way of truth.
To them the Sacred Scriptures now display
Christ as the only true and living way:
His precious blood on Calvary was given To make them heirs of endless bliss in heaven. And e'en on earth the child of God can trace. The glorious ble-sings of his Saviour's grace.

For them he bore His father's frown; For them he wore The Thorny Crown; Nailed to the Cross, Endured its pain, That His life's loss Might be their gain. Then haste to choose That better part, Nor even dare refuse The Lord thy heart, Lest HE declare, "I know you not;"

And deep despair
Forever be your lot.
Now, look to Jesus, who on Calvary died, And trust on Him alone who there was crucified.

THE STORAGE OF ARCHIVES -- Capt. Dick Meade, of the navy, had a warm interview with Secretary Stanton to-day. The Secretary has ordered the rebel archives to be placed in Captain Meade's house, instead of Ford's theatre, which was purchased for that purpose, on the ground that it would be disrespectful to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, who was killed there, to place these rebel memorials in that building. Captain Meade claims that such use of the house of his lare mother is objectionable on the same ground, and he demands that the Government shall take the house off his hands. - Wash. Cor. N. Y.
